BILLIE BURKE'S APPEARANCE
A SOCIAL EVENT.

Billie Burke's coming to the Empire Theatre on Friday evening, March 5th, will be the event of a more or less busy theatrical season. The young woman who charmed everybody by her delightful simplicity and insinuating personality as John Drew’s leading woman, is said to have a play of even more delightful humor than "My Wife," in the new French comedy "Love Watches."

What is more, the critics seem to have agreed that in addition to all of her piquant charm, Miss Billie Burke is an actress of some ability and destined to do really serious things some day. On the other hand, one sees no particular reason why she should not continue to play ingenue roles, for which she is undoubtedly so well suited, especially as there are so few genuinely capable ingenues in this country.

The play in which Miss Burke will appear is a delightful French comedy and was one of the great successes of Paris. An unusually effective company has been gotten together by Mr. Charles Frohman, among the supporting players being Mr. Thomas Holding, Mr. Ernest Lawford, W. H. Crompton, Miss Maude Odell, Miss Louise Drew, and Miss Ida Greeley Smith.
